SUPPENBIONS OF JAPANESE NEWSPAPERS. -The Chioda Shimbun and the Miyako Shimbun have both been suspended, and both for a similar offence. The former wrote that the police were distinctly favourable to the roughs who assail the adherents of the Popular Party; the latter asserted that in the riot at Tagono, after the souhi of the Kokumin-he had been besten back by the Jiyu-ha, a body of fifty police appeared upon the scene, and with drawn swords and flying banners, led the latter once more to the strock. We (Japan Mail) have not the smallest sympathy with the suspended Journals. by newspaper which, in the present excited state of political feeling, endlavours to weaken the authority of the police and thus impair their capacity to preserve order, by representing them as leagued with either of the contending factions, deserves not only suspension but extermination.

A large amount has been written off the herd of cattle. The cow house is approaching completion and advantage is expected from the consolidation of the business which this building will greatly facilitate. A considerable improvement has been effected during the year in the Company's estate by the cutting down of hill land, and by this a large area has been got for paddock and exercise ground for the cattle. The milk from the Dairy Farm continues to maintain its high reputation. At the last meeting of the Sanifary Board the Colonial Surgeon said that the milk was regularly tested by the Government Analyst, who reported that no better milk could be got from the best Alderney cows. BISHOP BURDON ON PUBLIC MORALITY.

Yesterday forenoon Bishop Burdon reached in St. John's Cathedral from Titus i. 11-14, For the grace of God hath appeared bringing salvation to all men, inc structing us to the intent that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly and righteously and godly in this present world.' In the course of his romarks he said—' We are very apt to be and we often are great sinners against our neighbours in our pleasures. We do it often in thoughtlessness or ignorance, or it may even be in utter disregard of what happens to others, so long as we get our amusement. Mobs of Englishmen have insisted on men fulfilling their engagement o ascend in a balloon although it has been almost certain death to attempt it; and sometimes has resulted in death. Large numbers of children in England are annually injured physically and morally in connection with pantomimes, and thousands attend them who would never dream llowing their own children to be so reated. I do not know how far this apolies to our appual pantomimo hero, but there must be some risk, and, in any case, late hours on Saturday night reaching to the small hours of Sunday morning are the worst preparation possible for the worship of God in which some of the children have to take part. THE SILVER QUESTION

With reference to the cilver position the United States Congress the usually well-informed. Washington correspondent of the New York Commercial Bulletin writes as follows: -- The prospects of silver legislation are so involved with political complications that it is difficult at prosent to decide just what they are. drift of feeling here, however, is more credentials to President Carnot, favourable to the rassage of a Free (unrestricted silver). Coinage Bill than it was when Congress met. The defeat of Mr Mills. of Texas. in the contest for the Speakership, after he had declared in fuvour of putting the silver issue to the rear, has had some effect in discouraging the opponents of free coinage. The new Speaker, Mr Crisp, is conservative in tempor, but his conservatism promises to result in yielding to the majority in the House rather than regarding the sentiment of the business community in the East. It is reported on pretty good authority that the majority of the House Committee on Soinago will favour silver legislation. This may not mean that silver legislation
